THE TURF'S GREAT PACERS.

Vitello, 2:11 1/2, is the champion pacer of the Empire State.

Among the mares, Yolo Maid, 2:12, stands very high as a pacer.

The veteran Johnston is being campaigned again this year.

Guy, 2:06 3/4, is one of the swiftest "sidewheelers" out this season.

Direct, 2:05 1/2, is a California horse. He will not be campaigned this year.

Saladin recently defeated Champion Mascot, 2:04, in the fast time of 2:05 3/4.

Turf prophets believe the pacer will be the first two-minute harness horse.

Roy Wilkes, 2:07 1/2, will without doubt decrease his mark before the campaign is over.

There is only half a second between Hal Pointer, 2:04 1/2, and the championship of the world.

Jay-Eye-See, 2:06 1/4, is fifteen years old and never paced until last season. His trotting record is 2:10.

Flying Jib, 2:06 3/4, is looked upon as a probable champion this year. At the beginning of last season he had no record.

The 5-year-old gray stallion Manager, 2:09 3/4, will undoubtedly prove one of the most formidable championship candidates this year.

Mascot, Flying Jib and Guy paced the five fastest heats on record last year. Mascot took the first in 2:04. Flying Jib the second in 2:05 3/4, and Guy the remainder in 2:06 3/4, 2:08 1/2 and 2:08 3/4.

SINGULAR AVERSIONS.

Marshal d'Albert fled at the sight of pigs.

Pascal always thought he saw a yawning abyss on his left hand.

Vladislas, king of Poland became excited every time he saw an apple.

Louis XIV could not bear the sight of the church steeple of St. Denis.

Bayle went into fits when he heard the noise of water rushing out of a tap.

Scaliger could not look at a bunch of watercress without being seized with a shivering fit.

Tycho Brae the famous astronomer, changed color and felt his limbs give way under him when meeting a hare.

Julius Caesar was remarkably afraid of thunder. It is said that he wore a laurel wreath to protect himself from the lightning.

Hobbes, the freethinker, could not be left without a light in the night for a single moment lest he should go off in a delirium.

Henry III, the son of Catharina of Medicis, had such a horror of cats that he could not remain in the same room with one of these animals.

The Chevalier d'Alcantara became sick at the sound of the word lana (wool), and yet he did not object to wearing woolen clothes.

La Mothe le Vayer could not bear the sound of any kind of instrument, however harmonious, but the noise of thunder and the howling of the wind sent him into ecstasies.

A Talking Donkey.

The secret of teaching donkeys to talk is said to have been bought from a Tunisian chief by a French impresario for the sum of $850, and at least in one case it has proved a success. The wonderful animal in question, which has not yet appeared in public, though it will shortly do so, does not indeed carry on connected conversations, but can clearly articulate a large number of phrases in both the French and English languages.
